

Good practice - Document details

Project title:	“ELLEN-SZER” Secondary School Youth Protection Program of the Police in Hungary
Country of Origin:	Hungary
Project description:	This secondary school crime prevention education program targets young people aged 15-18 with the objective of providing them with the necessary protection against deviancy and crime and help them avoid the adverse effects of addiction to alcohol and drugs. Specially educated and selected police officers train the participants through open discussions, role play and situational games how to avoid crime and its adverse effects focusing on the abuse and misuse of alcohol and drugs, violence and aggression, deviancies and behavioural addictions, internet related crimes. Provision of ample description of police duties and activities assure the participants successful building of trust and confidence in the law enforcement authorities.
Project Start date:	2005
Project Status:	Fully Implemented
Is project still running?:	Yes
Date of last review:	2014
Contact details:	Pol. Lt. Col. Agnes NEMETH Head of Crime Prevention Department National Police Headquarters nemethagnes@orfk.police.hu
Documents:	