Invitation

Best Practice Conference and European Crime Prevention Award

Date: 13-14 December 2023
Location: Valencia, Spain

It is our great honour and pleasure to invite you to the Best Practice Conference and European Crime Prevention Award (ECPA) held in Valencia on December 13-14, 2023.

The aim of the event is the promotion of insight and practices of crime prevention among EU Member States, developing prevention campaigns aimed at the citizens and investigating crime prevention in order to create preventive strategies in the field of security.

The topic this year is "Trafficking in human beings for the purpose of labour exploitation and other ways of exploitation".

Topic

The Spanish Presidency of the EUCPN is focusing on the trafficking in human beings for the purpose of labour exploitation and other kinds of exploitation.

Human trafficking can be considered as the contemporary form of slavery of the 21st century, which constitutes a serious violation of the dignity and freedom of the person and a form of serious crime. Moreover, it is important to highlight that specific groups, such as vulnerable people, especially women, children and men in delicate physical or economic conditions, are the main targets of this type of criminality. For all of the above reasons, it is claimed that the fight against human trafficking for labour exploitation requires a consolidated, cross-border and multi-disciplinary effort by different authorities, and the Spanish National Police's Illegal Immigration Network and False Document Unit (UCRIF) coordinates this involvement at national law enforcement level, collaborating with the European Labour Authority in joint inspections.
