The image shows a close-up, low-angle shot of a building facade. The word "EUROPOL" is prominently displayed in large, white, three-dimensional block letters. To the left of the text is the Europol logo, which consists of a stylized, multi-layered shield or crest. The building's facade is a light, neutral color, and the sky above is a clear, pale blue. The overall lighting is bright and even, suggesting a clear day. The perspective is from a low angle, looking up at the building, which emphasizes the scale and presence of the organization.

DOs Buy from trusted sources. Use brands and shops that you are familiar with or have used before and check the ratings of individual sellers on sites such as Amazon or eBay.	Control the recurring charges. Before providing your card details to pay for a continuous service over the internet, find out how you can stop that service.	More e-commerce sites will ask to store your payment details. Think twice before deciding and make sure you understand the risks this might imply.
Use credit cards when purchasing things online. Most credit cards have a strong customer protection policy. If you don't get what you ordered, the card issuer will refund you.	Make sure the data transfer is appropriately protected. Look for the padlock symbol on the URL bar and use HTTPS and SSL protocols when browsing over internet.	Always save all documents related to your online purchases. They may be needed to establish the terms and conditions of the sale or to prove that you have paid for the goods.
GOLDEN RULES SAFE ONLINE SHOPPING EUROPOL ECS
DON'Ts If you are not buying a specific product or service, don't submit your card details.	When purchasing something online from another person, don't send money upfront to the seller. If possible, reserve the right to receive the goods first.	Don't send money to anyone you don't know. If someone approaches you online and asks for money, think whether you would give the same amount to an unknown person on the street.
Never send your card number, PIN or any other card information to anyone by e-mail.	Avoid doing your online shopping at sites that don't use full authentication (Verified by Visa / MasterCard Secure Code).	Never send your card details in an unencrypted e-mail. Some online shops outside of Europe may request a copy of your card and passport by e-mail as guarantee.

MONEY MULING

A way to launder money

A money mule is a person who transfers money (digitally or in cash) received from a third party to another one, obtaining a commission for it.

Methods used by criminals to recruit mules

- ▶ direct contact in person or through email
- ▶ instant messaging (e.g. WhatsApp, Viber, Telegram)
- ▶ social media (e.g. Facebook, Instagram)
- ▶ online pop-up

In order to make the scam authentic, they can genuine company's website with a similar URL

Most targeted people:

- ▶ People under 35, including minors
- ▶ Newcomers to a country
- ▶ Unemployed, students and people in economic distress

PREVENTION TIPS

- ▶ Research any company or person that offers you a job
- ▶ Never provide your bank account to anyone unless you are sure

WARNING SIGNS

- ▶ Unsolicited contact promising easy money.
- ▶ Job adverts from overseas companies seeking 'local/national agents' to act on their behalf.
- ▶ Poor sentence structure with grammar mistakes.
- ▶ The sender's email address is likely to use a free web-based service (Gmail, Yahoo!, Hotmail, etc.) not matching the company's name.
- ▶ No education or experience requirements listed.
- ▶ All interactions and transactions regarding the job will be done online.

Don't be a Mule!

If someone asks you to move money through your bank account in exchange for cash, they are asking you to be a money mule.

This is money laundering, it's illegal, and the consequences can be severe for you.

Easy money without effort?

Too good to be true!

▶ A stranger approaches you in person and asks you to move money through your bank account in return for a profit.

▶ The opportunity to make easy money is presented as risk-free.

▶ You are told what to do and how much others have already earned for doing the same.

▶ For different reasons, money launderers will always ask for your bank account number or

MONEY MULING IS AN ILLEGAL ACTIVITY

Money muling helps to foster the cycle of criminal activity such as drug dealing, human trafficking and online fraud.

Don't be an accomplice of organised crime.

It isn't worth it.

CONSEQUENCES CAN BE SEVERE FOR YOU

DON'T BE A MONEY MULE

A money mule is someone who is recruited by criminals to launder illegally obtained funds.

Think twice. Never give your bank account details to anyone unless you know and trust them.

Don't be duped.

Alert your bank and the police immediately.

MONEY MULING HELPS PERPETRATE CRIME

IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE

Criminals will try to dupe innocent victims into laundering money on their behalf by making the job offer seem as legitimate as possible.

Be wary of adverts that are poorly written with grammatical errors and spelling mistakes.

CEO/BUSINESS EMAIL COMPROMISE (BEC) FRAUD

CEO/BEC fraud occurs when an employee authorised to make payments is tricked into paying a fake invoice or making an unauthorised transfer out of the business account.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS?

INVESTMENT SCAMS

Common investment scams may include lucrative investment opportunities such as shares, bonds, cryptocurrencies, rare metals, overseas land investments or alternative energy.

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS?

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Always get impartial financial advice before you hand over any money or make an investment.

ROMANCE SCAM

Scammers target victims on online dating websites, but can also use social media or email to make contact.

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS?

GOAL: Raise awareness at EU level on the most serious scams affecting the banking sector and their customers

SPOOFED BANK WEBSITES

Bank phishing emails usually include links that will take you to a spoofed bank website, where you are requested to divulge your financial and personal information.

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS?

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

ONLINE SHOPPING SCAMS

Online deals are often a good buy, but beware of scams.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Use domestic retail websites when possible - it will be more likely that you can sort out any problems.
- Do your research - check reviews before buying.
- Use credit cards - you have more chances of getting your money back.
- Pay only by using a secure payment service - Are they asking for a money transfer service or a wire transfer? Think twice!
- Pay only when connected to a secure internet connection - avoid using free or open public wifi.
- Pay only on a safe device - Keep your operating system and security software up to date.
- Beware of ads offering outrageous deals or miracle products - If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is!
- A pop-up ad stating you have won a prize? Think twice, you might just win malware.

BANK SMISHING SMSs

Smishing (a combination of the words SMS and Phishing) is the attempt by fraudsters to acquire personal, financial or security information by text message.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Don't click on links, attachments or images that you receive in unsolicited text messages without first verifying the sender.

BANK VISHING CALLS

Vishing (a combination of the words Voice and Phishing) is a phone scam in which fraudsters try to trick the victim into divulging personal, financial or security information or into transferring money to them.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Beware of unsolicited telephone calls.
- Take the caller's number and advise them that you will call them back.
- In order to validate their identity, look up the organisation's phone number and contact them directly.
- Don't validate the caller using the phone number they have given you (this could be a fake or spoofed number).
- Fraudsters can find your basic information online (e.g. social media). Don't assume a caller is genuine just because they have such details.
- Don't share your credit or debit card PIN number or your online banking password. Your bank will never ask for such details.
- Don't transfer money to another account on their request. Your bank will never ask you to do so.
- If you think it's a bogus call, report it to your bank.

BANK PHISHING EMAILS

Phishing refers to fraudulent emails that trick the receivers into sharing their personal, financial or security information.
