6. Short summary of the project (max. 100 words)

In addition to law enforcement, awareness raising and prevention are of key importance in the fight against crime. The Világítani Fogok Association and the National Crime Prevention Council of Hungary are organizing an outdoor exhibition of awareness-raising posters, which will later be housed in the Police Museum.

7. Project description

On the occasion of the European Day Against Human Trafficking (October 18), the European Commission planned to launch an awareness-raising campaign, joining which the National Crime Prevention Council drew attention to the forms of human trafficking in Hungary in order to prevent them.

The main element of the campaign is a poster exhibition consisting of ten pieces, with visual elements and educational material.

We focused the next forms of trafficking in human beings:

1. Debt slavery
2. Forced labor
3. Forced begging
4. Domestic slavery
5. Prostitution
6. Child pornography

The poster exhibition is accompanied by a performance (a short play), the dramaturgy of which reflects the messages of the exhibition.

We would have liked the exhibition to have a worthy venue, and the Police Museum was the ideal place for it, where it was part of a temporary exhibition..

We opened the joint exhibition in the Police Museum in a ceremonial setting on October 18. 2023, starting at 10:00 a.m. We invited nearly 50 guests to the opening.

In the afternoon we organized an outdoor exhibition in one of the shopping mall to draw attention for public.
