

Project title: Improving crime victims' access to services and creating contacts points for victims of crime

Main theme:

The main theme of the national project is to create and strengthen institutional capacity in the field of prevention, help and support for the victims of crime – with focus on the:

- Fasten and simplify the access of the victims to appropriate and adequate social, psychological and legal assistance.
- Development of the standards and processes for accessible and efficient government in the field of assistance for the crime victims

Project purpose and outcome (in two sentences): is to create analytical unit for analyzing needs of crime victims in order to receive appropriate protection and support and to prepare legislative proposals and preparation of analysis which could be used on the national level.

Project submitter (Member State): Slovakia

Project leader(s): Crime prevention department of Ministry of Interior

Project partner(s): Office of plenipotentiary for civil society

Project description (max. 150 words):

By creating and strengthening institutional capacities in the field of crime prevention, protection and unlawful acts victims' support is to create a mechanism of effective and accelerated victims' access to the corresponding social, psychological and legal aid.

Part of the objectives is to setup process standardization for reaching accessible and effective public administration in the field of aid provision for crime's victims on the national level and to train responsible coordinators and their assistants in order to provide sufficient aid and support.

As a part of crime prevention, there are planned several prevention and dissemination activities among project's target groups.

Objectives project (max. 150 words):

- Development of analytical unit to analyze needs and support victims

- Creation of coordinators network for crime's victims
- Methodical regulation and coordination contact units, standards and method's creation and ratification from each topics with focus on the victim's needs
- Cooperation setup
- Training coordinators, assistants and police officers on local and national level
- Development of the contact units database and evaluation of the results
- Preventive activities with selected victims

Project outcome (max. 150 words):

- Coordination network for the crime victims
- Analytical centre
- Development of cooperation and psychological, social and law assistance for the victims of the crime
- Training of trainers for the law enforcement participants
- Trainings for participant from different fields that have contact with the victims of crime (social workers, police officers, NGO's)
- Preventive activities and complex communication campaign using online and offline tools

Start and end project:

02/2016 – 01/2019

Timescales and key milestone dates:

- Development of analytical unit to analyze needs and support victims 02/2016 – 01/2019
- Creation of coordinators network for crime's victims 02/2016 – 01/2019
- Methodical regulation and coordination contact units, standards and method's creation and ratification from each topics with focus on the victim's needs 02/2016 – 12/2016
- Cooperation setup 02/2016 – 01/2019
- Training coordinators, assistants and police officers on local and national level 05/2016 – 01/2019
- Development of the contact units database and evaluation of the results 09/2016-

01/2019

- Preventive activities with selected victims 02/2016 – 01/2019

Funding (total budget and type of funding (e.g. ISEC, EUCPN Fund,...)):

4 mil €, operational program Effective public administration, European social fund

Contact details project:

Ing. Jozef Halcin - jozef.halcin@minv.sk